

WE LEAD IN QUALITY, WORKMANSHIP AND PRICES!

It is a wise policy to buy a harness that will stand a critical examination.
BUY HAND SEWED HARNESS.

We sell them at prices that no one in north Missouri can compete with. We have no machine nor do we want one Every strap hand sewed.

Claude Henderson is a business visitor in New York this week.

Miss Ella Gentry will leave tomorrow for Lee's Summit, Mo., where she will teach. The patrons of the school there are to be congratulated on securing the services of Miss Gentry as she is a successful teacher and a lady of refinement and culture.

Colored School.

Prof. King opened the colored school Monday with an attendance of 50 scholars.

Poultry Wanted.

I am loading another car for the Eastern market. If you want fancy prices bring it in this week.

JASPER HENDERSON.

Cooperville.

School opened Monday under the management of Miss Claude Greeves with about 25 scholars in attendance.

Mrs. W. E. Shearman and family from Hannibal enroute to their home near Victor, spent several days visiting relatives and friends in Cooperville.

Frank Thomas and family spent Friday very pleasantly at the home of O. O. Nitchman.

Mrs. Lou Colvert and daughter attended the association at Ebenezer church Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Shaw and daughter, Mrs. Ran Sullivan, spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Lou Colvert.

High School

The Monroe City High School opened Monday with a full corps of teachers and an attendance of 387 pupils, thirty five more than at close of first week last year.

Linn-Taubman.

Rev. Paul H. Linn and Miss Taubman, of Lexington, were married Tuesday. The bride is not known in this city, but she is to be congratulated upon winning the love of such a noble, christian young man as Paul Linn. Mr. Linn grew to manhood in this city, graduated at Central College and is now one of the ablest young ministers in the Missouri Conference of the M. E. Church, South. They will reside at Maryville, where Rev. Linn was stationed at the recent conference. The DEMOCRAT extends best wishes.

Colonel's Cow.

Col. W. T. Youell's cow did not jump over the moon but he wished it had. He was leading it with a rope, and she took a notion to skeddaddle and did so with the Col. at the other end of the rope and the result was thumb and finger almost pulled off of right hand.

New Bank.

Yesterday Briggs Medcalf received incorporation papers for Winfield Banking Co., at Winfield, Mo. He and his brother William M. Medcalf of Ft. Worth, will hold the controlling stock.

The Worst Copy.

"The worst 'copy' that comes into a newspaper office," complains the Topeka Capital, "are the church announcements sent in by the preachers. They are written frequently on scraps of paper, are often illegible, and always ignore all rules of construction, capitalization and punctuation. A preacher's 'copy' always needs editing. Next to the preacher the school teacher sends the poorest manuscript to the newspaper office. Teachers spell fairly well, but they know next to nothing about capitalization and punctuation, and their phraseology is usually so precise that it is painful."

List of Letters.

Remaining unclaimed in post-office, Monroe City, Mo., on Sept. 8, 1903.

Anderson, J & S
Ely, Mrs Emma
Harrington, Mr Lon
Turnbough, Mr Allen
Young, Mr Osa

To obtain any of these letters persons must say advertised.—J. P. PATTON, Postmaster.

For Coming Weddings.

Ivory satin duchesse is first choice for the wedding dress.

The dress may be quite covered with rich lace.

Lace draperies are most suitably festoned with orange blossoms.

Brides who may have been widows can indulge in picture hats.

Brides are a little chary of the new plaited and gathered skirts, and are prone to confine such frivolity to over draperies.

What the autumn may bring forth is not to be told, but florists will have to think hard to evolve a bouquet that shall take the place of the lovely shower.—St. Louis World.

"It we blot out of our histories," said Secretary Shaw, to the St. Louis Republican Club, "all that has been achieved by the Democracy, history would remain unchanged. If we blot out all that has been done by the Republican party, there will be no history left.—Mark Hanna with his "Me and God" will have to take a back seat because, oh, pshaw.

The Paris Mercury speaks of having received 28 pounds of honey from Rocky Ford, Colo. Now if the Mercury man will mix 2 ounces of it and 1 quart of butter milk and take it at one dose, he will think Josh Jarman, the big man of Rails, an infant by his side.

DeWitt Davis of near Emden, was in the city yesterday and sold $125 horse to J. Art Melson.

Miss Mae VanCleve of Macon, is the guest of her friend, Miss Gaynell Settle.

Mrs. Sam Davis of Emden, is in the city being treated by Dr. Agnes McNeil.

Node Green reports the sale of J. B. Thomas' property on cor. Charles and Locust streets, to D. H. Stevens. Price $1650.

Get your seats now for the Steelsmiths; opera house, Monday, Sept. 14.

Mrs. Ellen Hough of Kirkwood, formerly one of the belles of this city, is now the guest of old friends here.

Bert Yowell a doctor will be. He leaves today for Kansas City to enter a veterinary school.

Harry E. Linn will make a business trip to Ft. Worth, Texas, on the 15th.

Big Doin's—Opera House Monday night. Prices 15, 25 and 35 cents.

Three Little Ones.

The stork has been over to Jno. Goodwin's and left him a pretty little Miss to entertain until some big boy takes her off his hands.

And the old bird has been to Will Engle's and left him a bouncing 12 pound boy.

News from Memphis, Tenn., gives Hon. and Mrs. W. S. McClintic credit with having a grand-son at last. That being the case we congratulate Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hampton. The Senator now is grand pa six times.

Lost.

A shawl and cape between Walter Moss' farm and city. See Ed L. Rees.

At the opera house—Foley and Young, creators of Buck and wing and solo dancing. Prices, 15, 25 and 35 cents.

High quality and low prices are linked together at J. H. Woodward's cash grocery store.

After a summer pleasantly spent with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Proctor, Mrs. A. T. Baker and daughter, Miss Eleanor, returned to their Southern home, Ft. Worth, Tex., yesterday. They are migratory, like the birds, and will not return again until warm weather, 1904.

Entertained.

Tuesday evening Mrs. Thos. Proctor entertained her Sunday school class and the middle-aged Proctor clans.

The games and refreshments were enjoyed by all. Mesdames Ada Eakle and W. T. Ragland assisted Mrs. Proctor in entertaining her guests.

"Travelers' Home."

Such is the name by which what is now known as the Commercial Hotel, will be after Oct. 1st. At that time Daniel Kendrick will take charge and he proposes to make it deserve the name. Mr. Kendrick is an experienced man and the DEMOCRAT bespeaks for him a good business.

See Beatrice, Marvelous Queen of Light in her Electric Transformation and Fire dance, Monday, Sept. 14. Prices 15, 25 and 35 cents.
